Guidelines to the ABD Scholarship Awards

The Association of Blauvelt Descendants considers our youth to be our most precious and valuable resource. It is our goal to promote the development of this resource through financial scholarship support. The ABD is proud to offer this assistance to undergraduate and graduate students. The Scholastic Awards this year include:

- ◆Raymond & Carolyn Blauvelt Scholarship Award ($1,000)
- ◆The Jackie Hegemann - ABD Scholarship Award ($1,000)
- ◆The Best Essay Award ($250)

Scholarship Application Procedures:

1. To apply for any and all of these scholarships, please submit the following:
 - a. Application Form (see reverse side).
 - b. Proof of Academic Achievement - by providing a school transcript.
 - c. Personal Résumé – including school activities, extra-curricular activities, athletics, memberships, honors, awards, community service, volunteer activities, jobs, hobbies and interests.
 - d. Personal Essay - at least two pages but not more than three pages, double spaced, 12 pt. and in your own words on the topic: “Do you think new technological advances will create more employment opportunities for you and your generation, or will you be replaced by automation?”
 - e. Financial Need Statement – one to two paragraph statement of financial need written by the student.
2. All required information must be complete. Email documents to: ABDScholar at gmail dot com by May 1, 2021 and include “ABD Scholarship” in the subject field. Late applications will not be considered.

Scholarship Notification and Awarding Procedures:

1. Applications are reviewed by a Scholarship Committee. This committee will recommend nominees for each scholarship to the ABD Board of Directors for vote of approval at the Spring Board Meeting.
2. All applicants will be notified in writing directly by the Board of Directors immediately after the selection is made. Scholarship recipients will be asked to provide a photograph to be published in the Blauvelt News with their winning essays.
3. The scholarship award amount will be sent directly to the academic institution listed on the Application Form on behalf of the individual. The money is to be applied to the tuition of the student or other qualified educational expenses.

Other:

1. All eligible applicants are encouraged to re-apply each year for Scholarship Award consideration, regardless of past result.
2. These scholarships are not a loan and, therefore, do not have to be repaid after graduation.
3. All tax implications are the responsibility of the award recipient.
